Win-A-Lot Night - November 12

Come out for a dinner you won't forget

Tune-up Night held Sept. 30

Fire damage reported

Over 50 loyal shareholders turned out for a fun-filled evening in conjunction with a massive lottery ticket mail-out by the Scandinavian Centre.

Couples were charged a $5.00 book of lottery tickets as admission for the all-inclusive evening, which included hors d'oeuvres, wine and cheese, cold cuts, a free bar, and great music by the Sons of Norway Freeloaders.

President Per Nielsen reported on the repairs and renovations being done to the fire-damaged kitchen and Viking Room. As of October 21st the Viking Room is back in operation, and it is beautiful — drop in to the wine and cheese party on November 10th and have a look!

The kitchen is due to be finished in another four to five weeks.

Vice-President Gary Johnson reported on the Lake Lot lottery, as well as the ticket booths being manned at various shopping centres throughout the city. Response to the mail-out has been tremendous; thanks to each and every one who has graciously supported the Centre in time of need.

Club Viking is hosting an exciting fund-raising evening on November 12th in the Viking Room at the Scandinavian Centre.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served at 6:30 p.m. and at 7:30 a Smorgasbord of the very choicest foods.

Dancing will be to the fine music of the Al Brault orchestra, and there will also be additional entertainment.

LOTTERY DRAW

The Winner of the Lake Lot at Edmonton Beach will be drawn during the evening, as will be the winners of the second and third prizes in the Lottery.

SCANDINAVIAN CENTRE QUEEN

The suspense for the lovely Queen candidates will also come to an end; the decision of the judges, which will have been handed to the Board earlier, will be announced, and the Queen will be crowned, commencing her year of Scandinavian Centre activities by drawing the winners of the Lottery.

AUCTION

A variety of valuable merchandise which has been donated will be auctioned during the evening.

DOOR PRIZE

A very special lunch will be served late in the evening, and someone present will be the lucky winner of the door prize.

TICKETS LIMITED

A limited number of tickets are available at $20.00 per person — they can be obtained at the Centre, or from Per Nielsen or Gladys Clark (see advertisement inside).

TIME OF NEED

A lot of hard work has gone into making this evening a real success in order to help the Scandinavian Centre in time of need, and to assist in preserving the culture of our Scandinavian people.

We know we can count on your support.

Queen Contest

A Wine and Cheese Party will be held in the newly-decorated Viking Room at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 10th in conjunction with the judging of the candidates for Scandinavian Centre Queen for the coming year.

Three well-qualified judges will interview the girls. They will initially be judged on personality, poise, general knowledge of their respective countries of origin, and current events. Each young lady will then display her particular talent and the judges will make a final decision.

This final decision will not be made known until November 12th at "Win-A-Lot" Night at the Scandinavian Centre where the Queen will be crowned and both she and the first runner-up will receive cash prizes.

There is no admission for this evening, and we know you will come out and offer your encouragement to the candidates, enjoy a social evening with friends, and see the new decor in the Viking Room.

Inger Bak opens restaurant

by Olaf Sveen

A farewell party was held recently at the Hotel Londonderry for Inger Bak, the famous Danish chef. She was leaving to open her own place — Inger's Restaurant — on Whyte Avenue.

In the meantime the hotel has hired Erik, another cook

Inger Bak

Ottawa luncheon

The Scandinavian Centre was honoured when the President of the Board of Directors, Per Nielsen, was invited to be the guest of the Secretary of State and the Minister for Multiculturalism at a luncheon with Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, held in the Confederation Room in the West Wing of the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa on October 17th. Of the 190 ethnic representatives who were present, only five were from Edmonton.

According to Per, the meal was delicious. Following the luncheon the guests were bused to the Ottawa Civic Centre for Multiculturalism where an ethnic program was presented; from there they were taken directly to their hotels.

from Denmark. He tells me he has been to Norway many times, especially to Kristiansand, which is barely inside Norway. In fact, some people say it is closer to Denmark than to Norway, but this is hardly true since it is a Norwegian town.

Lottery response

Your Board of Directors could hardly believe it! The immediate support you have given us on ticket sales has just been phenomenal, and there are just not enough words in any language to express our appreciation.

Everything will have been tallied for the next paper, and we will print some of the heart-warming letters we received.

Many of you included donations for the paper who won't find your names listed this month. The reason is that we have had so much mail to go through that we haven't yet been able to sort it all out.

So if you included a donation for the Scandinavian Centre News with your tickets and it is not noted in this issue, it will be sure to appear next month.

We are most grateful.

A Very Happy Birthday to a very gracious lady and a long-time shareholder in the Scandinavian Centre — Mrs. Anni Kari of Rich Lake, Alberta — on her 88th birthday on Win-A-Lot Day, November 12th.

Mrs. Kari's recent letter reads as follows:

"I am returning those ticket stubs. I couldn't sell any, I am 88 years old and cannot move around much, so I took them all. Enclosed find $14.00. My 88th birthday is on the drawing day. Hope I am lucky for something. As I am a shareholder, I wish the best for our home. Hope you have good results from the tickets."

SPLINTERS from the BOARD

CENTRE OPERATIONS—

We have had a trying month since the occurrence of the fire. The clean-up has been remarkably fast, the Viking Room, of course, having taken the longest time. The kitchen will not be ready for use for approximately another month. In the meantime it was necessary to move all the chairs and tables from the Viking Room, and all the dishes, downstairs. The Board appreciates the forbearance of the Danish Society in putting up with tables full of dishes along the back of the Dania Room. The Viking Room was re-opened on October 21 and we think it looks great with its new decor; drop in any time and have a look — we think you'll agree.

The bottom line, however, is that the official report on the fire is "Break, Enter and Arson". The report states that entry was gained through the kitchen window, and it appears that an inflammable substance was set afire in the door-way of the kitchen. Fortunately, the kitchen air-conditioner which was installed only a few weeks before, drew the fire upwards in the kitchen and the smoke was visible from outside; otherwise it would have spread into the Viking Room, and it would have been some time before any smoke made its way outside.

The kitchen has been stripped completely and new dry-wall put up. However, it was the kitchen which suffered the heaviest damage, and some of the equipment which has to be replaced had to be ordered from the east. This has set the completion date farther along than we had anticipated.

A sheet flooring will be put down in the kitchen and storage areas, rather than tile, and the ruined doors on the pass-through to the Viking Room will be replaced with a wooden type to eliminate the rattling every time the back door is opened. We inquired about the possibility of installing a dumb waiter, but the cost was far too high for the length of time we will be in our present building. It was therefore decided to put in a door through from the storage room to the main office; this will be kept locked except when it is necessary to carry dishes up or downstairs while a function is taking place in the Viking Room.

FOOD OPERATION—

With the opening of the Viking Room we will have Melitta back looking after the preparation of whatever it is possible for us to handle in the downstairs kitchen, as well as bringing in our own serving staff. All we can report on our chef is that Børge Velling was called into the Embassy in Copenhagen for an interview on October 19th, but it looks as if it will still be another 4 to 5 weeks before he will be able to leave for Edmonton.

CENTRE DEVELOPMENT—

The committee is still involved in investigating possible locations for our Centre, but we know you appreciate that this is a time-consuming project.

FUND-RAISING—

What can we say. The support you have given the Centre on this lottery has been beyond anything we expected and makes the hours of work worthwhile. No organization could have more supportive shareholders. We will have final figures for you in next month's paper, as well as the winners' names; we hope to have raised some much-needed money when everything is in.

The draw for the winners will be held on November 12th when Club Viking is sponsoring a fund-raising evening; the new Scandinavian Centre Queen will be crowned during that same evening. We hope to see many of you out that night (see advertisement inside).

We would also like to remind you that, if you have not sent in your stubs and money yet, we must have them right away in order to complete the tally in time for the draw.

SCANDINAVIAN CENTRE NEWS—

Never again will we make the rash statement that the paper will be out on time. Every month for the past three months something has come up that the Board felt could not wait until the following issue, resulting in the paper being a week late each time. All we can say is that we will continually give our best efforts to having it out at the first of the month.

We apologize for the way in which the headlines were done in the October paper — particularly the misspelling; the printer has assured us that this will not happen again.

WINE & CHEESE PARTY—

The judging for the Queen Contest this year will take place in conjunction with a Wine & Cheese Party in the Viking Room at the Centre on THURSDAY, November 10th, at 8:00 p.m. The girls will appreciate the support of your presence, particularly to view the demonstration of their respective talents. There is no admission. This is a great opportunity to enjoy a social evening, give the young ladies the encouragement they deserve, and at the same time have a look at the refurbished Viking Room.

QCFM Program in third year

by Olaf Sveen

The Scandinavian Program I host on QCFM is now in its third year.

This year it is scheduled to be broadcast at 10:30 on Saturday mornings. The station has several hours of ethnic programs that day. According to plans, the ethnic programs will also be heard again during the week. This means there will be at least an hour of Scandinavian music each week on QCFM. The station is really doing a good job of promoting ethnic music.

VASA LODGE SKANDIA

by Gertie Holmgren

Our regular October meeting was held in the Nordic Room in the Scandinavian Centre on October 1st, with Chairman Ray Nyroos in the chair.

Those reported sick were Harriette Nylen, Alma Samuelson, and Gust Bostrom.

Six new members — Jerry and Gwen Ungarian, Ted and Jean Derpack, and Harvey and Bonnie Russell — were initiated into our Order. We welcome them, and hope their memberships will be long and happy.

Tom Pearson gave a short report for the land committee and asked that all leaseholders try to attend the November meeting if at all possible, as it is important that they hear the report which will be given at that time. A diagram of Vasa Park will be mailed to all leaseholders.

Congratulations—

To Leo and Linda Cote on the birth of a baby girl, Lisa Kathy, born September 15th, weighing in at 7 lbs. 3 ozs. Roy and Charlotte Samuelson are the proud grandparents, and Alma Samuelson is now a great grandmother.

Visitors—

Elva Frederking of San Jose, California, was a guest at her parents' home while she was in Edmonton for the 20th anniversary of the dedication of the mural which Elva painted in St. Paul's United Church. Elva is the daughter of Magnus and Betty Pearson. While here she was busy visiting in the homes of her many friends.

Marta and Clifford Dahl were busy this summer entertaining guests. Their daughter Connie and her husband, Rich Streed, with their three children — Mark, Susan and Alyson — from the San Fernando Valley, visited for awhile; then Cliff's brother and sister-in-law, Red and Millie Dahl of Victoria, and Cliff's sister, Myrtle Field, also from Victoria, and Hazel and Joe Mitten, were all guests at the Dahls'. Other visitors at their home were Marta's niece, Pat Wessel, and her son Joey, from Nigeria. Joey is only two years old and speaks English except when he is cross; he then speaks Hassa (I don't know if that's spelled right).

Travellers—

Bill and Martha Kay spent their holidays in Montana visiting places like Great Falls, Missoula and Kalispell, then motored to Kamloops for a visit with Lulu and Harold Lundgren who send their best wishes to all their friends in Skandia.

Ken and Carol Banks combined business with pleasure on a trip to Toronto and Montreal.

Doreen and Ray Nyroos, along with their children Kristina, Trevor and Kjell, visited Ray's brother, Raul, in Vancouver.

Helen and Ken McEvoy were on a fishing trip 96 miles north of Terrace, B.C., with friends Ken and Mary McKeever. Helen is very proud and happy, as she caught the only steelhead.

Linnea and Henry Lodge motored down south for a holiday.

Karl and Marj Leander spent five weeks in B.C., and the weather was fantastic. They visited Marj's mother in Kamloops, and then travelled to Vancouver Island where they visited with different members of their families at places like Sidney, Victoria, Comox, Duncan, Port Hardy and Campbell River. They spent two weeks with a fourteen-year-old grandson at Comox while his parents were in England. On the way home they also visited in Vancouver. The fishing was good, and Karl brought home a good supply of salmon.

Oscar and Winnie Pearson and their daughter, Rita, and her fiance Bob Brown, motored to Grande Prairie to attend the wedding of Rita's friend, Maxine Ross, to Chris Boxall.

I went on an eleven-day bus tour into B.C. which I enjoyed very much. These bus tours are a great way to travel, especially for someone like me.

Clifford Lindberg and his son Dean had a wonderful fishing trip in September. They flew up to Inuvik and then joined a charter flight to Banks Island and Victoria Island. There were fifteen on the charter, and Clifford was the only one who caught his limit of seven char and two trout, surpassing all the others.

Meetings—

Our November regular meeting will be held on November 5th at 7:00 p.m. at the Scandinavian Centre.

The November meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be at the home of Ken and Helen McEvoy, 13508 - 69 Street, on Wednesday, November 16th, at 1:30 p.m.

Pastor Antti Jantti from Vancouver, B.C., was a recent visitor to Edmonton. While here he held a prayer service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaino Rastas.

Lahden Kamarikuoro from Finland visited Edmonton at the beginning of October on their cross-continent tour. They held a concert at Augustana Lutheran Church. The performance was excellent, thanks to all the members of the Choir and their director, Matti Rauhala. Their program was performed in English, Finnish, Swedish, German and Latin. Thank you to all those who helped in accommodating the members of the Choir and friends. Thank you to Pastor Kruger and the ladies of Augustana, and thanks to all who helped in any way to make that event such a pleasant one.

Edmonton Finnish Society held their opening dance and the annual bazaar on October 15th at the Scandinavian Centre. The evening was very successful. Thanks to everyone for the donations of articles which were sold.

Music in the mountains

by Olaf Sveen

The Old-Time Accordion Championships at Kimberly, B.C., was a very successful event this year with lots of entries and many people who came just to see and listen.

Three of the contestants were born in Norway — Agnar Tollefsen, now living in New Westminster; Arne Levanger, now living in Bremerton, Washington; and Alan Valberg, now living in Calgary. Two contestants came from Sweden.

The contestants were divided into six classes, and I am hoping there will some day be a seventh class — for two-row button accordion players.

The competition lasted three days.

I travelled by Greyhound bus this time. I found out that this Company was started by a couple of Swedes — Carl Eric Wickman and Andrew Anderson — back around 1914 or so in Minnesota. I believe the first rides were about four miles long, and the fare was 15 cents one way, or 25 cents for the round trip.

It is hard to imagine a nicer setting for an accordion contest than Kimberly. The main drag has been given some Bavarian decor, and of course the mountain scenery is first-class. After living in Edmonton it almost feels like coming back to Norway. Kimberly claims to have the largest cuckoo-clock in the world, if it is a cuckoo-clock, and they also have one of the finest ski-hills around. Only a minor detail went wrong last winter — they had no snow! Maybe they should have imported some from Norway.

Betty Gall and Everett Larson from Saskatoon, and I, had the difficult job of being judges. I promised myself two years ago that I would never again be a judge at an accordion contest, but we know "the road to Niflheim is paved with good intentions", if that has anything to do with it. Everett is Norwegian. This might bring to mind the words of Per Sivle that "there always has to be a Norwegian involved when Norway's banner is to be chopped down", but not so this time. Norwegians and the accordion go together like horse and carriage; they take to the accordion like a fish to water, or go together even like salt in the porridge, as they used to say at home. Larson told me his people came from the shores of Mjosa, the largest lake in Norway.

Old-time accordion music comes mainly from Scandinavia, even a Scotsman in kilts came on stage and did his rendition of "Kristiania-vals" by Gotthard Erichsen, only he called it "Oslo-vals" in the same book of music, so in Norway we call "Kristiania-vals" and "Oslo-vals" by those names. He probably didn't know that, and as they say — what you don't know won't hurt you. But the funny thing was that he got a laugh when he told the people that they call Kristiania-vals for Oslo-vals in Scotland. But he played well, so we had to forgive him for his mistake.

The two Swedes — Veijo Laine and Esko Koskela — played many beautiful numbers, mostly with a Finnish flavour, music never to be forgotten. It is maybe even wrong to sit and judge such music. It goes right to the heart, and has nothing to do with points.

We heard a lot of the old standards and stand-bys. We can mention "Styrmanns-vals", "Hammarforsens brus", "Sakki-jarven polkka" with two 'k's', "Jenny Lind polka", etc. We also heard more international old-time music such as "Rosalind waltz" and "Beer Barrel polka", pieces we Scandinavians often feel are on the borderline of what we call real old-time music.

It all ended with Agnar Tollefsen getting the finest prize, first in the professional class. His rendition of "Life in the Finland Woods" did it.

A person would have been able to listen to accordion-playing practically around the clock during the three days the contest lasted. In the afternoons seminars were held at the Ski-Lodge, with demonstrations of old-time dancing, talks about the accordion, plus ripping one apart, and small concerts by Leo Aquino. Leo walks around squeezing a little thing made out of hard rubber that looks like a donut to get strength in his fingers. Personally I prefer donuts you can dip in your coffee and eat.

The competition took place in McKim Auditorium in the evenings, and there was old-time dancing to accordion music in Happy Hans Kampground most of the night. When accordion players go out, they go all out!

Bill Baerg, who is a guitarman himself, was the man behind it all, and Edwin Erickson was all over the place too.

Personally, I am blessed with being able to hear a lot of accordion playing all through the year, and I am very much used to it. In Kimberly some people said they heard so much accordion music it was coming out of their ears, but most of us never hear enough of it because no music is happier.

I took some pictures — one of Agnar Tollefsen and Leo Aquino, outstanding performers at Kimberly. This photo clearly shows that you don't have to have long hair to play well. One picture is of Alan Valberg and his five-row accordion, Norwegian system. He is an up and com-

Christmas Party—

Once again we have come to the time of year when we have to start thinking about Christmas. The Annual Christmas Party for the children will be held on Sunday, December 18th, at 2:00 p.m. in the Viking Room at the Scandinavian Centre. As in the past, only members' children are eligible to attend. Please fill out the registration form below for your children to attend the party.

The forms must be in the hands of the Secretary on or before November 30, 1977. The Christmas Party is for children up to and including the age of 12 years.

Christmas Bingo—

Dania's Annual Christmas Bingo will be held on November 30th at 8:00 p.m. in the Nordic Room. We have moved this event a little ahead of previous years in the hope that more people will be able to attend.

Whistdrive—

Dania's monthly Whistdrive will be held on November 8th at 8:00 p.m.

Membership Renewal—

Membership Renewal Forms will be sent to all members in the early part of November.

This year we ask that you indicate on the form whether you are a Shareholder of the Scandinavian Centre, and if you are not a shareholder and would like to continue to receive the Scandinavian Centre News, we ask that you forward $4.00 to the Secretary, together with your membership fee. This is necessary because the Scandinavian Centre now charges Dania for every paper we mail out to members who are not shareholders.

Hilmir recently qualified for a Bachelor's Degree in Physiotherapy at the University of Alberta. There was a very nice pot-luck supper, entertainment by Erika MacPherson and Solli Sigurdson, and an enjoyable glimpse of Al and Martha Arnason's slides of Iceland. Ninna Campbell read a poem of farewell, and Barney Thorlakson and Lucille Oddson spoke on behalf of the Society and the Saga Singers. The party wound up with a rousing sing-song.

An out-of-town visitor at the party was Lillian Sumarladason, in town to attend the wedding of her niece on October 1st. It was a flying trip, but she said she'd be back around Christmas for a longer visit with relatives and old friends here.

Everyman's Heritage.

The Canadian Odyssey

A new, permanent exhibition of the National Museum of Man, Ottawa

With "Everyman's Heritage—The Canadian Odyssey", the National Museum of Man has taken an unusual and exciting approach in demonstrating, explaining and preserving our rich Canadian cultural heritage.

This unique exhibit depicts in fictional terms the story of "Everyman" who is so typical of so many Canadians. His life, his background and experience are depicted in the context of him starting a new life in a new land.

Through the understanding of "Everyman" all Canadians should become more acutely aware of the rich and diverse cultures which are our rightful inheritance.

The theme of this exhibit underscores the central, human and important underpinnings of human experience which should enhance and broaden our appreciation of our diverse and rich heritage.

The story of "Everyman" continues to unfold in each of our lives—we are its authors.

Come to enjoy our cultural diversity which is "Everyman's" Heritage—The Canadian Odyssey".

Study -abroad program

Scandinavian Seminar is now accepting applications for its study-abroad program in Denmark, Finland, Norway, or Sweden for the academic year 1978-79. This living-and-learning experience is designed for college students, graduates and other adults who want to become part of another culture while learning a second language.

An initial 3 weeks' language course, followed by a family stay whenever possible, will give the student opportunity to practise the language on a daily basis and to share in the life of the community. For the major part of the year he is separated from his fellow North American students, living and studying among Scandinavians at a "People's College" (residential school for continuing adult education) or some other specialized institution.

All Seminar students participate in the Introductory, Mid-year and Final Sessions, where matters related to their studies, experiences and individual progress are reviewed and discussed. The focus of the Scandinavian Seminar program is an Independent Study Project in the student's own field of interest.

The fee, covering tuition, room, board, one-way group transportation from New York and all course-connected travels in Scandinavia is $3,800. A limited number of scholarship loans is available.

New transport plan for Norway

A new transport plan for Norway has just been presented. It took 5 years to produce it, and since it recommends widespread changes, it has already produced a lively debate.

One of its main recommendations is that fares and duties on transport services be increased relatively highly so that transport subsidies can be reduced. This in turn could lead to increased investments for the benefit of railroads and motoring roads. Another recommendation is to increase gas and mileage charges, thus allowing a reduction in import and annual tax charges on automobiles.

The committee recommends the abolition of four branch railways, and the conversion of some to goods-only traffic. The coastal express boat route between Bergen and Kirkenes is recommended for retention with some operational changes.

News from Ansgar

During November there are several important happenings for the people of Ansgar.

Perhaps the least popular, but the most necessary annual event is the Fall Drive. Even though we have had the happy experience over the past several years that people are more and more making regular monthly or bi-monthly contributions to their Church, there are still some who choose to make a contribution annually. We do appreciate all gifts, whenever they come, and whatever their size, but also within the Church we are faced with the inflation factor. Therefore we would like to remind all contributors to Ansgar that if you could make that extra gift this year just a bit more than last year, it would help us immensely. Our Fall Drive runs to the end of November, thereby giving everyone ample time to participate. Thank you in advance for your gift.

Christmas Bazaar and Auction

A November event that no one really wants to miss is the Danish Ladies' Club Christmas Bazaar and Auction Sale. It will be held this year on Friday, November 18th at 7:00 p.m. (note the time) at the Scandinavian Centre. And as per usual, there will be lots of Christmas goodies available, from hand-work to meats to baking. As well there will be the opportunity to become the lucky winner of one or two of the exquisite pieces of embroidery work. First prize is a wall hanging entitled "Journey Through Banff"; second prize is an embroidered Christmas calendar. Tickets are available now, at $1.00 each, from any member of the Club, or you may phone Anne-Lise Larsen at 459-7341. See YOU at the Bazaar.

Annual Congregational Meeting

Last, but not least, is the Annual Congregational Meeting which will be held on Friday, November 25th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Church parlors. We urge all members and friends of Ansgar to make a point of being present. We need your voice and your vote. Let's make it a date for Friday, November 25th, at 8:00 p.m.

ANSGAR'S FALL DRIVE

To all who want Ansgar to stay well and alive,
We remind all good Danes of our ANNUAL FALL DRIVE!

The time is now here when the budget is due,
And we look for assistance from YOU — YOU — and YOU.

In these times of inflation, when the buck is worth less
It takes larger donations, but you know that I guess?

Old Ansgar has weathered many storms, many times,
But it cannot keep active on nickels and dimes.

So why not consider at this time of year,

An hour's wages per week for the things you hold dear?

For forty-eight years, we would remind you,

Ansgar's been nourished by Dee Ko Ooo.

Are they really so poor, the Danes in this land,

That they need to turn homeward with an out-stretched hand?

There are few out on welfare, at least that we've met

And the things that they want - they have the money to get.

If the Church with its message is to go out to all

We need increased responses to our FUND DRIVE this fall!

We live in an age with a most hectic pace,

But what a 'poverty existence without God's good Grace.

From the Font and the Altar all may come to receive God's gifts of healing and their burdens relieve.

And thus it has been for these forty some years,

The Church has been serving through laughter and tears.

It is hardly conceivable that the Danes they would holler

If we should suggest, "Forget that thin dime — make it a dollar."

Nor would we expect to really be plundered,

For hinting that fifty—should increase to a hundred.

If each Danish family would take into account

The Church tax in Denmark, they'd give twice that amount.

So with great expectations — THANKS the Board does declare,

For your gifts to our Fall Drive, for they say that you care!

Christmas gift cards

For the fourteenth consecutive year, Montreal artist Eva Prager has designed a Christmas gift card for the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada's growing circle of supporters of this appealing project.

Instead of spending money and time shopping for Christmas surprises for your friends and family, the amount you would spend on presents is sent to the U.S.C. of Canada in Ottawa along with the names and addresses of those you have decided to remember in this way.

Your name is then printed on the cards and it is addressed and mailed for you.

The minimum contribution per card is $2.

Cards may be ordered from the U.S.C. of Canada, 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa, K1P 5B1.
